November 2015

November is our favorite month of the year. It is a season when we take extra time to consider the bounty and abundance of God's blessing on us, our ministry and our partners. We have been serving at FAMILYLIFE for over 15 years. During that time we have seen the power of God's word transform circumstances and bring hope and healing back into devastated lives.

This month was no exception with the I STILL DO event in Virginia on October 16-17. Only one word can summarize the simulcast that touched all 50 states and more than 11,000 people on Saturday:

WOW!

God showed up as an astonishing array of talented preachers/communicators, a top 20 worship leader and band, a drama team, comedians, and a NASA Astronaut all participated in a first class event that was built around equipping people with God's blueprints for building marriages and families.

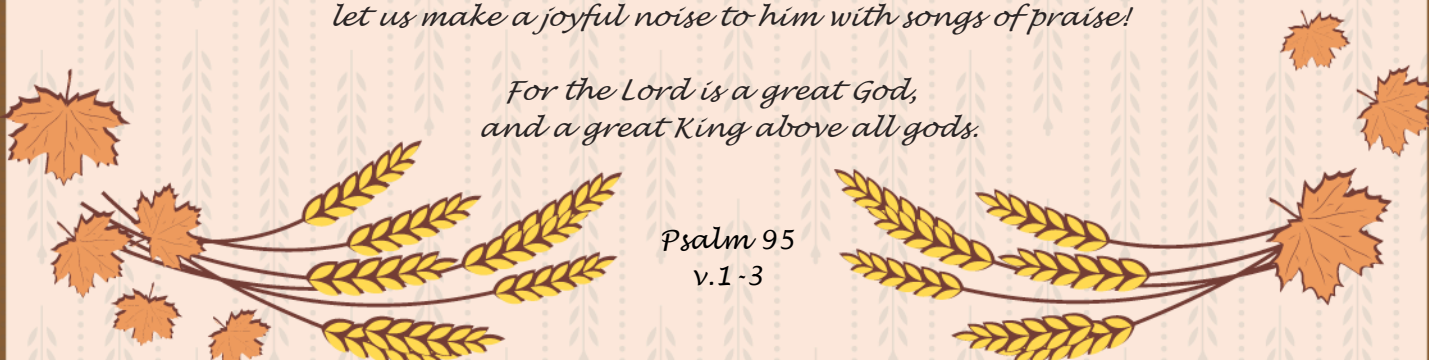

- Alistair Begg, taught from Gen 2:24-25 and unpacked the marriage covenant and how we are to cleave to our spouse.
- Alex Kendrick, writer and producer of The War Room challenged couples to pray together.
- Crawford and Karen Loritts spoke on how "conflict is necessary for intimacy."
- The day also included an interview with NASA Astronaut Barry "Butch" Willmore, and his wife Deanna. The audience loved hearing how they juggled multiple deployments and a 6-month separation when Butch commanded the International Space Station earlier this year.
- Dennis Rainey closed out the day with a challenge for Courageous Promise Keeping, Courageous Forgiveness, and a call to live out a Courageous Mission as a couple.
- The event ended with beautiful roses and a teary, touching recommitment service.

We just have to say that we are humbled by the privilege of teaming up with you in proclaiming the Gospel and boldly standing for God's design for marriage and family in one of THE most urgent times in our nation's history. Thanks for your part and for standing with us!

*Oh come, let us sing to the Lord;
let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation*

*Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving;
let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise!*

*For the Lord is a great God,
